

INDEX: NEW ZEALAND BEEKEEPER, VOLUME 33, 2025

Title	Author	Issue	Season	Page
A new report links high USA colony losses to amitraz resistance	Karen Allan, Apiculture New Zealand Communications Coordinator	3	Winter	9
AFB notifications and inspections 2024/25	The Management Agency (AFB PMP)	2	Autumn	34
AFB PMP National Operations Managers' Report	Dwayne Hill and Marco Gonzalez	4	Spring	23
American Foulbrood Recognition Courses	The Management Agency (AFB PMP)	2	Autumn	36
American foulbrood: the 'beekeeper's disease'	Ken Brown	3	Winter	12
Annual Disease Return & Levy Process Flow Chart	The Management Agency (AFB PMP)	2	Autumn	39
Arctic beekeeping	Astrid Bjerke Lund, the Norwegian Beekeepers Association	4	Spring	11
Autumn efficacy of Bayvarol® for controlling varroa	Michelle Taylor, Rafael Campos and Duncan Hedderley, Plant & Food Research	2	Autumn	16
Bee congress draws biggest crowd ever	Karen Allan	4	Spring	16
Beekeeping in high fire risk conditions	Apiculture New Zealand and Fire and Emergency New Zealand (FENZ)	1	Summer	20
Beekeeping in Uganda with Bees Abroad	Karen Allan	2	Autumn	40
Better understanding varroa management challenges in NZ	Karen Allan	1	Summer	9
Bulk honey finding new markets	Phil Edmonds, Apiculture New Zealand Senior Policy Analyst	3	Winter	7
Cause of unprecedented USA colony losses still unclear	Barry Foster	2	Autumn	14
Colony loss rates are lower, reversing trend	Karen Allan	2	Autumn	6
Cyber smarts for small beekeeping operations	Karen Allan	4	Spring	30
Exploring sperm viability to detect overstocking	Epernay L. S. Carta, Christina J. Painting and Ashley N. Mortensen	3	Winter	10
Farewelling a positive and passionate industry stalwart	Greg Smith, Ecrotek CEO	2	Autumn	15
Fulfilling a firefighting dream	Karen Allan	1	Summer	21
General Manager's Report	Niharika (Niha) Long	2	Autumn	25
Getting to the culmination of the season	Barry Foster	1	Summer	33
Getting together to discuss issues that matter	Karin Kos, CEO Apiculture New Zealand	3	Winter	4
Giving your bees the best chance over winter	John Berry	2	Autumn	53
Got questions?	Ken Brown, Auckland Beekeepers' Club	1	Summer	26
HiveHub improvements during 2024-25	The Management Agency (AFB PMP)	4	Spring	29
Honey fraud provokes Apimondia honey contest cancellation	Karen Allan	1	Summer	18
Honey testing: Answers to common questions	Rekaza Jaleel, Hill Labs	4	Spring	13
How do NZ honeys taste to consumers?	Roger Harker et al.	1	Summer	12
Inside the life of New Zealand's first beekeeper	Reviewed by Ken Brown	2	Autumn	46
Know your market: China	Karen Allan	1	Summer	16
Looking for new answers to old problems	Karen Allan	4	Spring	5
Managing risks of tutin poisoning	Food Regulation, New Zealand Food Safety and Apiculture New Zealand	1	Summer	10
Managing varroa mites	Ken Brown	2	Autumn	44
Managing varroa on the Australian front	Karen Allan	1	Summer	6
Many small coins lead to big honour	Karen Allan	3	Winter	6
Mary Bumby's Hive of Story : a tribute to New Zealand's early honey bee history	Reviewed by Ken Brown	2	Autumn	47
Maximising hive inspections	Ken Brown	1	Summer	25
Meet the beekeeper: Christine Ryumugabe Kamanzi	Karen Allan	2	Autumn	43
Meet the beekeeper: Nick Milne	Karen Allan	4	Spring	19
Meet the beekeeper: Simon Aarts	Karen Allan	1	Summer	22
Meet the beekeeper: Vicki Allen	Karen Allan	3	Winter	11
More honey out, less money back	Phil Edmonds	2	Autumn	11

Title	Author	Issue	Season	Page
National Operations Managers' Report	Dwayne Hill and Marco Gonzalez	2	Autumn	27
New market opportunity: India	Karen Allan	2	Autumn	5
New pesticide standards needed to protect native bees	Felicia Kueh Tai, Ashley Mortensen and David Pattemore, Plant & Food Research, Ruakura, Kirikiriroa-Hamilton	2	Autumn	21
New toolkit for attracting and retaining great staff	Fiona Windle, Food and Fibre Centre of Vocational Excellence	1	Summer	23
New trust appointed to oversee AFB NPMP	Apiculture New Zealand	3	Winter	5
New Zealand Beekeeper, Apiary and Colony Statistics	The Management Agency (AFB PMP)	2	Autumn	33
New Zealand Beekeeper, Apiary and Colony Statistics	The Management Agency (AFB PMP)	4	Spring	28
New Zealand honey in demand—for a price	Phil Edmonds	4	Spring	10
New Zealand native forest propolis shows valuable activity	M. Manley-Harris, M. N. C. Grainger, L. M. Peters, S. T. T. R. McNeil, School of Science, University of Waikato	2	Autumn	19
NZ Colony Loss Survey summary 2024	Manaaki Whenua – Landcare Research and Biosecurity New Zealand	2	Autumn	8
NZBB Chief Executive's Report	Niharika (Niha) Long, Chief Executive NZ Bee Health & Biosecurity (NZBB)	4	Spring	21
Regulating backyard bees	Karen Allan	2	Autumn	12
Spring apiary management—a tricky balancing act	Barry Foster	4	Spring	39
Spring is inspection time!	Janette Gwilliam, AFB NPMP Training Coordinator, NZ Bee Health & Biosecurity (NZBB)	4	Spring	27
Stepping up plans for a more sustainable industry	Karin Kos, CEO Apiculture New Zealand and Tony Wright, CEO Unique Mānuka Factor Honey Association	1	Summer	4
Submit your Annual Disease Return with HiveHub before 1 June this year	The Management Agency (AFB PMP)	2	Autumn	38
Swarm management	Ken Brown	4	Spring	31
Taking a fresh look at leadership	Karin Kos	4	Spring	4
Time to reflect and reset	Karin Kos	2	Autumn	4
Turning the sting around on invasive wasps	Karen Allan	4	Spring	6
USA election result creates export uncertainty	Phil Edmonds	1	Summer	19
Use HiveHub to receive your 2025/26 levy invoice and submit your Colony Return before 1 June this year	The Management Agency (AFB PMP)	2	Autumn	37
What could gene technology regulation changes mean for the apiculture sector?	Apiculture New Zealand	2	Autumn	14
Winter: time to relax, learn and plan	Barry Foster	3	Winter	17
Working together for plant and pollinator safety	Karen Allan	1	Summer	7

Photo: Hannah O'Brien